FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

15 May 1989

WASHINGTON--Rep Kika de la Garza today advised that staff from the regional office of the U.S. Census Bureau in San Antonio will come to McAllen on May 18, 1989 to interview and test interested applicants for jobs with the Census Bureau.

De la Garza noted "The upcoming 1990 census will be the most comprehensive survey of Americans ever conducted, providing information on our life styles and habits that will be invaluable in gauging socio-economic characteristics and determining national needs."

Census Bureau staff will begin testing interested members of the public at 10:00 a.m. on May 18th at the South Texas Vocational School located on 1812 South 16th Street in McAllen. After a lunchtime break, testing and interviewing will resume at 2:00 pm.

Congressman de la Garza said "We urge all those who might be interested in working for the Census Bureau during the 1990 effort to make plans on May 18th for a visit with Census Bureau staff and undergo testing for these important positions."
